

In the Supreme Court of the State of Alaska

John Zwiacher,

Petitioner,

v.

Capstone Family Medical Clinic, LLC,

Respondent.

Supreme Court No. S-17259

Petitioner's Reply Brief Overdue

Date of Notice: 11/14/19

Trial Court Case No. 3PA-17-02145CI, 3PA-11-02469CI

The petitioner's reply brief was due on 10/17/19. On 10/17/19, petitioner filed a request for extension of time to file the reply brief, however, even if this request were granted, the petitioner's reply brief would still be overdue. We have not received the brief with a motion to accept late filing or an additional motion to extend time.

If the petitioner doesn't file the reply brief, along with a motion to accept late filing, or a motion for extension of time by 11/25/19, this matter will be submitted to the court on the petitioner's opening brief and the respondent's brief alone. Any motion must state the reasons why the petitioner could not file the reply brief, or at least a motion to extend time, by the due date.
